Winnipeg Blue Bomber Doug Brown signs an autograph for a fan during a luncheon earlier this week

The Morden and Winkler Chambers of Commerce hosted the Winnipeg Blue Bombers Football Club this week as they continued their tour of the province. Over the past several weeks, the Bombers have put on many miles meeting their fans from areas outside the City of Winnipeg.

Jerry Maslowsky

Team President Jim Bell filled in fans in attendance about the teams history and what is in store for the football club in the future. He also gave an update on the new stadium currently under construction at the University of Manitoba with a tentative completion date of June, 2012.

Offensive lineman Obby Khan and defensive tackle Doug Brown were also there to talk about
